

+

Stacked Membership

For a deeply discounted price, get all the benefits of a MNCCC membership plus membership with the Public Technology Institute

Access to a robust national community

Exclusive forums, case studies, and articles

Opportunities to help drive our research and education

Membership-only awards recognition

Members-only webinars

Discounts on PTI's education and consulting

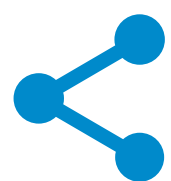

Discounts on PTI job board postings

Monthly newsletters

Reduced registration fees for PTI events

Weekly industry news digest

Member-only conference activities

Priority event invitations

The Public Technology Institute is a national organization that works to empower local government IT leaders with consulting, education, professional development, and the community they need to succeed.